Admiral George W. Anderson, USN (Retired)
Chairman, President's Foreign Intelligence
Advisory Board
Executive Office Building

Dear George:

Earlier this week you asked about the dissemination of the items we sent you on the international monetary crisis which appeared in the Central Intelligence Bulletin, The President's Daily Brief, and in intelligence memoranda. Enclosed is a list of the recipients most concerned with this topic--the NSC Staff, State, and Treasury. You may also have a complete list of recipients if you request it.

You should note that the key item was sent to the President in his Brief of 10 March. Essentially the same information was sent to the Secretary of the Treasury later in the month as an item in the "black" Central Intelligence Bulletin. All the items you received were sent to the Treasury Secretary's Special Assistant for National Security Affairs, who normally briefs the Secretary on significant intelligence items.

Sincerely,

Richard Helms
